Tuesday 13 March STAMFORD PLAZA Cnr Edward & Margaret St Lunch: River Room Business in post-election Queensland: Can it regain its mojo? Queenslanders vote on March 24th in an election which every poll indicates will see the end of 20 years of Labor. Despite a resources boom, Queensland has lost the mojo that drove it through most of the century's first decade. This presentation will look at what needs to change if the state is to get back on the front foot and examine whether the policies on offer by the current and alternative government can make a big enough difference. Guest Speaker: David Fagan, Editor-in-Chief, NEWS QUEENSLAND	Thursday 15 March FOUR SEASONS HOTEL 199 George St Lunch: Ballroom 2 Infrastructure NSW – Building strong foundations for change. Infrastructure NSW was formed on 1 July 2011 by NSW Premier Barry O'Farrell to identify and prioritise the delivery of critical public infrastructure networks across NSW. Chaired by The Hon Nick Greiner AC, one of Infrastructure NSW's responsibilities is to deliver a 20 year State Infrastructure Strategy that sets out priorities to drive productivity and, ultimately, grow the economy. Mr. Greiner will provide an update on the key elements of Infrastructure NSW's work and some of the challenges and questions that are emerging as the strategy develops. Guest Speaker: The Hon Nick Greiner AC, Chairman of Infrastructure NSW	Tuesday 20 March PARK HYATT MELBOURNE 1 Parliament Square, Off Parliament Place Lunch: Trilogy Australia's Carbon Price – Will the sky fall in? Australia's carbon price will commence in July 2012. This major economic reform will deliver disincentives to emit carbon dioxide, but also incorporate tax reform, industry assistance, investment incentives and price effects for consumers. What are the key impacts? Will the investment signals be strong enough? Does it spell the end of Australian industry or is it a competitive necessity? Guest Speaker: Nathan Fabian – Chief Executive Officer, Investor Group on Climate Change Australia/New Zealand	Friday 23 March HYATT REGENCY 99 Adelaide Terrace Lunch: Plaza Ballroom 1 Directions 2031 and Beyond Directions 2031 is a strategic plan to help guide development to meet the needs and opportunities presented by the future growth of the metropolitan Perth and Peel region. The success of the strategy will be in overcoming the challenges of this expected growth in identifying sufficient land for development, promoting further urban consolidation, and maintaining housing affordability, as the city's population approaches a forecast level of 3.5million people. Guest Speaker: Hon John Day MLA – Minister for Planning-Western Australia
